Note(s):

(1) This section provides summary information about payments excluded from public reporting and the reasons for their exclusion. Certain payments over $50,000 may be excluded from public reporting where:

A) There is a legitimate need to protect commercially sensitive information;

B) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to prejudice the competitive position of or interfere with the contractual obligations of the Crown corporation or a third party; or

C) Disclosure is prohibited by law, including the provisions of the Freedom of Information and Privacy Act.

To facilitate determining which suppliers would qualify under this exemption, SaskPower sent letters to all suppliers to whom the Corporation had made payments in excess of $50,000. The letter requested that the supplier comment on whether they felt disclosure of payments to their company should be exempted based on the above criteria. The items exempted in this section are based on the responses SaskPower received from its suppliers.

(2) These are payments made "in trust" to legal firms for remittance to third parties. Disclosure is prohibited by law based on the confidentiality of the agreements.

To facilitate determining which suppliers would qualify under this exemption, SaskPower sent letters to all suppliers to whom the Corporation had made payments in excess of $50,000. The letter requested that the supplier comment on whether they felt disclosure of payments to their company should be exempted based on the above criteria. The items exempted in this section are based on the responses SaskPower received from its suppliers.
